THE PORTAGE SENTINEL

JAMES W. SOMERVILLE, PROPRIETOR.

Office, in west end of PHENIX BLOCK, THE PORTAGE SENTINEL is published every Saturday, at Ravenna, Portage county, Ohio, at the following rates : One copy, one year, in advance, paid during the year, Ten copies, one year, $12 50 Twenty copies, one year,

The money must always accompany orders at the club rates.

BY J. W. BRYCE.

" Father! the hour is dark and gloomy, Humbly I bow before thy throne, And if this bitter cup my doom be, I only say, 'Thy will be done.' But for my bleeding country hear One prayer. Unseen by mortal eyes, I come to offer all that's dear To man-a willing sacrifice.

" If I have erred, spare not thy hand, Let all the punishment be mine; But from my loved-my native land, Father! withhold thy wrath divine! 'Gainst me let enemies prevail, And all my hard-won honors take, But hearken, Father ! to the wail Thy suffering children make,

"If on the deathless rolls of fame I had too fondly hoped to place, By honest deeds, my humble name, The record let thy hand efface-Purge pride, ambition, from my heart, And make me feel thy awful power-Let not thy countenance depart

From freedom's cause in this dark hour."

Twas thus while kneeling on the sod At Valley Forge, 'neath wintry skies, The chief in secret prayed to Ged With contrite soul, in humble gais. Then though the cloud, asuadec rivin, A solitary star was seen :

It came, a messenger from Heaven; And in its light he grow serone. " E. CLEONE & E'."

"Misfortunes," it is said, "never come singly of William Thornby. The world had none fortunate with him for a time, but soon promising speculations failed entirely, and his affairs became sally involved. Some hopes of rebroke out in the place, his house of business quietly: fell a prey to the flames, and to render the the day before.

to absolute poverty. Nor was this all; his cation he required in his advertisement; but "Well, friend," he exclaimed, extending Thornby and his large family were reduced anxiety and exposure during the fire brought on a fever, and for weeks his wife and daughter hung over him almost despairing of his goods establishment. The refusal was equal- a good salary, and without working harder life. At length, however, the fewer abated, ly as decisive as the other; and as he turned and though he was left weak and helpless as to leave the store he heard the employer rean infant, reason had returned, and nothing mark to the head clerk: was needed for his restoration to health but | "I make it a rule never to employ a per- hopes full there is still hope in heaven. good nursing and freedom from mental anx- son who looks as if he were unfortunate,- Careful and affectionate nursing were not going down hill," wanting, but it was impossible to prevent mental uneasiness. His children must be supported, but how? They would share with thought of those depending on him urged him in the poverty, perhaps the disgrace, another trial. With desperate determination band perished—and is the first American lady by sundered, were again united. Both are which the involved state of his affairs would he resolved to go to every warehouse in the who returned to the East by way of the 1sth- living with their daughter on Second Secon bring upon him, and many would heap upon street through which he was passing. But he mus of Panama. She is a genuine heroine, -San Franci co Mirror. him unmerited reproach.

fair name could be retained, and on this he at lous countenance could not fail to excite the the unpeopled West have been numerous and once resolved. The house in which they lived was valuable, and would command a ready and favorable sale. It was hard to part accosted by a benevolent looking old gentlewith a home he had made so com'ortable, but there was no alternative. The house was offered for sale and a purchaser soon found.

Every just claim was satisfied, and the fam- in my search?" ily removed to a distant part of the country. "Not directly, but I can give thee a little themselves in the possession of many comforts ally help thee attain what thee desires." and in their affection for each other the mother and child soon found contentment and hap-

But the father's heart was still sad. He felt a want of confidence in himself, and mistrust of his fellow creatures. His whole ap- walking rapidly away in an opposite direction. pearance was changed. His countenance was downcast and sad; his steps lingering and ir- "I am in no humor for his folly." resolute, and no one would have recognized. Then sorrowfully he turned towards his the once happy merchant in the ill-dressed own home, quite convinced of the uselessness and unhappy looking mus, who now busind of further search. himself in cultivating a small piece of land! His wife not much surprised at his fail that surrounded his little dwelling.

power to arouse his dormant energies. The some difficulty they obtained his sanction is little property thay had saved from the wreck what he considered as an almost about no would soon be exhausted; he was yet in the prime of life; his health was fully restored; regain, at least a part, of what they had lost? borhood and made known their intentions.-Surely it was a duty which he owed to him- Their lady-like and pleasing appearance ex- band expressed a preference for the Carson for a book, giving a diary of the Governor's end of the second mile, there were but four by the returned soldiers, "Why are these regiment, commencing with the very natural self and his children. But her husband cited much interest, and they soon secured a road, the wife for the Lessen, and noither journeyings. He might begin with his or five in pursuit. He was then within a question as to its name and number, when he shrunk from again mingling with what he sufficient number of pupils to encourage them would yield. The wife declared she would fight from St. Louis, about the 10th of June, mile of our pickets, and he, knowing where deemed a cold and unfeeling world, ly imagine the manner in which the unfortnnate are treated. Many will help those who atively sinking."

"This is part true," said his more hopeful tion of a large number of day scholars. are certainly well qualified either for a sales-

Portage Sentinel.

"THE UNION-IT MUST AND STALL BE PRESERVED."

RAVENNA, OHIO, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1862. VOL. 8.

as a salesman I -fear I should stand little chance of success."

temperament, and all will go well." "For your sake, Mary, and that of my children, I will make the attempt, but I feel ly." This was certainly verified in the fami. seated; at the same time surveying him with "You will not answer my purpose, sir." "Just as I expected. I have every qualifi- occasion.

The next trial was a large wholesale dry

Everything about the man shows that he is

"And therefore," mentally added poor Mr. Thornby, "you will give him a push."

There remained but one way by which his became more and more depressed till his anx-manhood; and her adventures in the wilds of observation of those around kim.

As he turned from the last shop, he was man in the garb of a Quaker, who exclaimed in a friendly tone of inquiry:

"Looking for a situation, friend?" "Yes, sir," was the reply, "can you aid me

Here in a small, neat dwelling, they found advice, which, if rightly acted upon, will fin-"I shall be grateful for your advice,"

"It is this,-Look Up." At these words Thornby raised his eves from the ground, supposing it to be a command to look at his adviser; but to his surprise the old gentleman had already turned and was "Some insane person," Thornby muttered,

His wife sought by every means in her posed the plan of keeping a school. Wit culated, and Sarah and her mother called upwhy not again go forward, and endeavor to on many families in their immediate neighin a beginning. The school rapidly increased "It will be in vain, Mary," he replied, "I and before the end of the first term they had shall loose the little we have. You can hard- more applicants than they could admit. Many families were anxious that Mrs. Thornby should receive their daughters as boarders; this occasioned an extension of their plan,seem likely to rise themselves, but very few A larger and more convenient hous; was tawill extend a hand to those who are compar- ken, and arrangements made for the accom- consisted of two yoke of cattle, one wagon, so of traitorous letters, from divers people, to wife, "but I trust not to the extent which Mr. Thornby viewed with wonder the sucreliance upon your Heavenly Father and you fortunate? How was it that they had raised will succeed. Begin at the bottom of the so many kind friends around them eager and ladder, and seek a situation as clerk. You able to assist them? In what did the difference consist?

"My health," said he, "will not permit me the advice which the old gentleman had said may seem, it is nevertheless true. It is among and "get" to Arkansas would also be instruction in gentrapped themselves.

couraged-I will now look up."

became sadly involved. Some hopes of re- aid before him, and without waiting to hear by, he d scended to breakfast the next morn- dropped the basket. And no wonder, either, his habits as the wandering Claib, himself, covery presented themselves, when a fire the qualifications he was about to urge, said ing, and at an early hour was on his way to for she was his wife-his "old woman!" the city. As he entered the office answering She recognized him, and throwing up her never to be in the same town with his superito the address given him by his daughter, he arms in amazement, exclaimed: "Great God! or officer. misfortune greater, the insurance had expired The applicant turned away without remon- was met by the same benevolent old Quaker John, is that you? strance, and left the office, saying to himself: who had proffered him advice on a former my appearance does not suit him, and that is his hand, "I am glad thou hast followed my advice and learned to look up. I have a situthan is fitting at thy time of life.

The best remedy for a man who is going did you find the Carson road?9

Remance of an Old Couple. The following somewhat remarkable parrative is related by a western lady, now on a visit to this city from Mariposa. She is her-He had resolved not to try again, but the self a character. She has crossed the plains arms around the old man's neck; "that's twice-first in 1849, during which her hes- enough, John ?" and the old couple so strangewas unsuccessful, and with every failure he a fine specimen of stout-hearted western waexciting. If the good folks of Mariposa have the Secretion Government of that State: missed a lady from their neighborhood, they It was with great and increasing difficulty on the corner of Montgomery and Setter-sis., down the world. Will he not at a future and will not return to the mountains until day, when conscience shall have ceased gnaw-ed attack of the "sulks," while the mascu- Exile," for example.

agree upon the roate by which to enter Cali- orate record.

summer following. ed with a neighboring train the cattle belonging to her, for a pony and pack saddle, and WASHINGTON'S PRAYER AT VAL- to lead the sedentary life of an accountant; if rightly followed, would insure him success. the many occurrences of stranger than fiction. tive and entertaining. The public have nev-"LOOK UP!" Surely, man formed in the image of his Maker, should not, like the beast safety. We say, "of course," for it is scarcely ces a tending the accident whereby two or "Not with that sad countenance, indeed, but strive to recover your former cheerful that perisheth cast his eyes upon the earth! Even when bowed down by misfortune, he should strive to look up to the light which the proshould strive to look up to the light which may yet illuminate his path. These thoughts crowded forcibly upon Thornby's mind, and seriously interests with the property of the Secretary and with a smiling countenance he reaches are thousands of little episodes in Gov. Jackcrowded forcibly upon Thornby's mind, and he was beginning to act in accordance with readily found employment—for women were them, when Sarah bounded into the garden with a smiling countenance he reaches out his hand and takes a hearty grip with a grey the paragon of politeness; and as some peoperation, where her father was busined with some vines and in a law reach and in a law reaches and in a law reach and He resolved to go and seek employment. Where her father was busied with some vines, ed a boarding house, and in a tew years amassized months, that would make excenent general where her father was busied with some vines, ed a boarding house, and in a tew years amassized months, that would make excenent general where her father was busied with some vines, ed a boarding house, and in a tew years amassized months, that would make excenent general where her father was busied with some vines, ed a boarding house, and in a tew years amassized months, that would make excenent general where her father was busied with some vines, ed a boarding house, and in a tew years amassized months, that would make excenent general where her father was busied with some vines, ed a boarding house, and in a tew years amassized months, that would make excenent general where her father was busied with some vines, ed a boarding house, and in a tew years amassized months, that would make excenent general through the control of the property of the control He resolved to go and seek employment, where her lather was busined with some vines, and told her father that he should smile upon and told her father that he s whose education had not been neglected, was copy-right.

dence and affection, the excellent mother and daughter determined upon two things; first to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commence together, if possible, the keeping of a small school.

This latter plan, however, they determined to submit to the father on his return.

The increase of the increase of the father on his return.

The increase of the father on his return.

The increase of the submit and father to the kind grant and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commend the husband and father to the kind protection of his quality and calibre usually make vast pretensions, like a very small family in a very big house. Where is the distribution of his quality and calibre usually make vast pretensions, like a very small family in a very big house. Where is the father of Heaven, and the total the state of Heaven, and the course for him.

The other was killed at the battle of Heaven, and the course for him.

The other was killed at the battle of Heaven, and the course for him.

The other was killed at the battle of Heaven, and the total family make vast pretensions, like a very small family part of the city, he observed a lady in the hall. Col. Reynolds-for he now has a military ti-

"All that is left of me," replied the old petition Jeff Davis to locate a capital for Mis-

With extended arms they approached.-Suddenly the old lady's countenance change advice and learned to look up. I have a situation at my command where there can obtain and site stepped back.

Two soldiers want to be paid for the time coming to a right face.

"John," said she, with a look which might to be paid for the time confinement at Richmond, have they were in confinement at Richmond, have they were they were they were the confinement at Richmond, have they were they were they were the confinement at Richmond, have they were they were old man, "full of sand and alkali," "Then I was right, John ?" she continued.

"You were, Sukey," he replied,

"That's enough !" said she, throwing her

A Pilgrim's Progress.

Holmes of the Gazette ceases to harrow the ing, and he can rest quit in some sequester-had attained a point of quiet desperation work too cumbersome, the Governor, with most exciting races that have occurred in this read them, if you do, until the war is over," death, in the service of his country. Deacon Tucker for his "amazuensis," might region for some time. They had pursued With a look of despair, Ohio made for the In a few moments after the meeting came at the forks of the road, and as they could not know the rest well enough without any clab fornia, there they had remained. The hus- We have said that the materials are ample modation of boarders, and also for the recep- camp furniture, a small quantity of provisions, be picked up and published. Deacon Tuckand $42 in silver. The proposal was accept- er could do this up in fine style, as he knows in your fellow men, and above all, have more that he should be rejected because he was undaughter to the mother. The latter exchangto the battle of Boonville, as seen about two getting into most too close quarters to be commiles off, when the Governor exhorted Cap- fortable, they suddenly came to a "halt" and you are appointed." tain Kelly and his men not to desert for the "about wheel," and not a hundred yards in A stout, healthy young man wanted a The words of the Quaker always came to divided spoil upon the animal, she resolutely tions whilst disguised in female attire, may twenty. man or accountant, and will no doubt obtain his mind, and though he had first regarded started across the desert by the Lessen trail, king champion time behind a pair of horses them as mere expressions of insanity, he now while the old man silently yoked the cattle on the Sedalia road. A statement of the rea-

"You deserve to be smiled upon, indeed, married to one of the most embstantial citi- There are various things in reference to The insome from that alone would afford us comfortable support. Our Heavenly Father to submit to the father on his return.

As Thornby approached the crowded city, he felt more oppressed by the doubts and fears which he had urged up in the conversation with his wife.

The insome from that alone would afford us comfortable support. Our Heavenly Father is always near to help us in the hour of need, i

We think the rebels of this State ought to we will say security, if a tender sensitiveness metapher of Missouri's figurative connection the river, being rather treathlesome to the re- was done; he signed it himself and said : is merely precautionary. Allow me to exbels, was compelled to find protection in our "Here, take this to him and bring an answer." claim in a control wolce: Sever the ranks to *The St. Louis Republican gives the follow- encampment. Having been some time in our A Western man, who said he hailed from march! ing amusing description of the proceedings of the Secretary flow o are hereby apprised that she is comfor ably we keep track of the purturbed wanderings had been reported perfectly safe. He went, Commissary General: he has charge of the concluded he would make the attempt, as it The secretary laughed. The must go to the his stockings, and of proportions worthy and arrived without any socident, and passed feeding of the army." "I have been at first frame, a thorough Union man, and in for war several days uninterrupted. But yesterday one and then another all sammer and some- until all treason is thoroughly crushed out, morning, as he was luxuriating on a nice, hot how or other, I don't get any further aload, was recently conducting a religious meeting, hearts of the Mariposa mothers by calling their little babies "brats."

hearts of the Mariposa mothers by calling their little babies "brats."

hearts of the Mariposa mothers by calling the latter of his adventures since his illustrious fight from Mission the stony road. Rushing to the door, he and he commenced to unroll his papers.—

how or other, I come get any nature aneat, when a brother arose to speak, who, after alluding to his hopes and fears in a religious. Well, while the train of which this lady soud's capital? Something in the way of glanced down the road and saw it swarming "Indeed, sir, I do not know how choose would point of view, branched out in reference to was a member was encamped at a point on "Views Afoot," or "Cities I Have Seen," or with Secosh cavalry. Springing quickly to agree with the soldiers." "That's just why the state of the country, saying that so great was a member was encamped at a point on the Humbolit, where the Lessen trail intersects the Carson track of travel, she visited seems in Dixie," or "Halv Memories of U.s." with Seems cavalry. Springing quickly to the back door, he made his way quickly across the Carson track of travel, she visited ces at Rebellion." or "Halv Memories of U.s." with Seems cavalry. Springing quickly to the back door, he made his way quickly across the cavalry across the cavalry. Springing quickly to the back door, he made his way quickly across the back door, he made his way quickly to the sects the Carson track of travel, she visited ces at Rebellion," or "Ugly Memories of Ug- horse, a splendid bay, ready saddled to that Ohio man stack it out bravely. "I assure are of the church, that he might be protected to the latter of t the tent of an elderly couple and one child—

Iy Lands," or "Tracks of a Traitor," or "A he could be in the saddle at a moment's warnyou there is not a soldier in the army who he Divine Pravidence on the battle-field, and a daughter of fourieen or fifteen years. The Rambler's Recollections of Rebeldom," or ing. Mounting him in the barn, he opened these not like crashers and cheese, and I am that should be fall a victim to the bullets of old hely was sitting on a pile of blankets un"Homes and Hunts in Secessia," or "Etray he door, and putting spors to his hoese, he make it for three cents a pound." "Now, I the every he might be prepared for the was soon dashing down the road in the directifully on what you had better do, go to Sonst change. line head of affairs had planted himself on The pilgrimage of this disloyal functionahis wooden tongue, and was surking his pipe ry would afford ample material for a book; time had "halted" immediately in frant of will then pass the Squata, and become an are patriotic fervor the brave heart of our worthy as leisurely as though he expected to remain and now, while James Buchanan is engaged the house, and they did not discover him unthere forever. A single glance developed the in the preparation of his "Life and Times," til he was flying down the road some hunthere forever. A single glance developed the fact that there was a difficulty in that little his mite to the personal and autobiographication of one waron and three persons, and that his mite to the personal and amount of the hot pursuit. Then commenced one of the and he made for the table. "I will never ed a willingness to give him up, even unto"

off one by one, as they rather disliked the knew where Sanator Wilson livel.

The rebels seeing they were fairly entrapbegan to suspect that they in reality contained and took the other route. Singular as this son impelling the author to abandon the State losing their victim, and at the same time beinto camp looked most decidedly "cheap," for first."

NO. 15.

The following is an inside view of five hours performance in the War office, under two hundred were listened to in this short

He left home for the city with the same sad and told her cheerfully as he used to do, for that she went to San Francisco, and the daughter, Governor would transfer to us the exclusive commission; I want one for him that he may military etiquette, sends us the following, His wife who had watched him anxiously until he was out of sight, turned sorrowfully from the window, and said to her oldest daughter:

"It is all in vain, Sarah; your poor father will never succeed until he can learn to look up, not only naturally, but spiritually."

After some expressions of mutual confidence and affection, the expressions of mutual confidence and affection, the excellent mother and learned at the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is the address," Sarah centing. Here is the address, "Sarah centing. Here is th again try his other arm here on the Potomac, which plainly shows that even in war-like while William Thornby felt an undoubted used that he possessed. On stating his used that he possessed. On stating his used that he possessed. On stating his used that he possessed that you carry time. It is need to him and asked the Secretary turned to him and the Secretary t business, a young viete requested him to be business. name and regiment, it was noted, and the sent arms, Secretary lifted him up, kissed him upon the * 9. I shall consider myself under an everforchead, and said: "Your father should be lasting obligation if you will once more carry broad of such a noble boy, and I'll rec that gross,

An individual has some new invention for your intrinsic worth, as well as your exalted and has always made it a point, we believe, fire-arms: "Go to the or house department position in society, I humbly trust that I am recommend it, I will be glad so see it adopted?" request you to trail arms. souri-just for the name of the thing-and passes he wants to real: "Are you an officer the to remark that it is my earnest desire that compel Governor Jackson to give bonds (or not be heard until to-morrow; come and 12. If it is not too laborious, I should be

"John," said she, with a look which might look better to have a nominal seat of Government, in order to keep up the magnificent long they were in connected a furment, in order to keep up the magnificent long that received a week ago, and all known affability by desiring you to come to down hill is to look up. When earthly "Miscrable, Sukey, miscrable," replied the hopes full there is still hope in heaven.

"Miscrable, Sukey, miscrable," replied the with the paral-ofical Confed trate States. By "Why do you not take this to Major Beck- 14. Gendlemen, sadders, blood-strained here. all means let Gov. Jackson by chained up. with and have him attend to he?" "We did, roes! If congenial to your feelings, you may (C) The ancient story of the Irishman, who, sir, and he says he has no order that will consider yourselves dismissed. I beg to rein the Revolutionary war, took five prisoners cover our case, and for want of forms' we mark, however, that should it suit your conby "surrounding" them, has a counterpart in are straid we will be kept here until our fine venience, you will be kind enough to hold the adventures of a Union manin Kentucky, folks before going at it again." Turning to which you will be made aware of by the rewhich are thus described by a Camp Wood his Secretary he ordered him to write to Mappend and vigorous tapping of the "spiritcorrespondent of the Cheinnati Gastle : jor Beckwith and order him to report forths stirring drum," recollecting at the same time, "A gentleman by the name of Jenkins, a with in writing why these men were not that the first vibration of that sweet instrugood Union man, living some five miles from paid up instead of being kept waiting. It ment that strikes the tympanum of your cars, which he said was an "essay on cheaze,"-- .

would yield. The wife declared she would fight from St. Louis, about the 10th of June, mile of our pickers, and ne, knowing where remain there all winter; the husband said he when he and Gen. Price took a special train they were stationed, conceived the idea of er all the prisoners that may be released in the long of should be pleased to lengthen the sojourn the in the hottest kind of haste, and burned the drawing his pursuers into a trap. Consequent-the future, and allow them full pay for every More Truth Than Poetray.—A volunbridges behind them to evade pursuit. He ly, he held in his horse until they were within day they are confined in rebel prisons. Ma- teer and some citizens were talking about the could tell how badly scared he was, and how about one hundred yards of him; they, as a jor, I have just learned there are over 150 war at Elmira, when, a differ-On the morning of the fourth day, the wife his knees smote together when he gathered matter of course, imagined the horse was now waiting for their pay; every man must ence having arisen, some proposed to settle it broke a sullen silence of thirty-six hours by up his shirts and things and put out for Jeff- about worn out, and the prey would soon fall be paid to-day and speed them on to their by taking a drink. proposing a division of the property, which erson City on horseback, leaving a bushel or into their hands. But "the res many a slip homes." A tall man wants a commission in "No, no!" said the soldier, "that is no way 'twixt the cup and the lip," Just so in this the regular army. "Have you been in any to talk. You, and other men who can possis case. Just as they fancied they had the vie- battles yet, sir?" "I was in the Mexican war," bly leave home, should agree to enlist .-ed, and forthwith the "plunder" was divided, what is to be discovered in dishonorable coryou seem to believe. Place more confidence cess of his wife and daughter. Why was it leaving the wagon to the old man, and the respondence. A chapter could be devoted distaly on their right. Suspecting they were at Great Bethel." "That's better, I will expendence. A chapter could be devoted distaly on their right. Suspecting they were at Great Bethel." "That's better, I will expendence. A chapter could be devoted distaly on their right.

in which he saw and heard all who came, or any other blanket,"

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One square, (11 lines,) one week, three weeks, $1 00 Legal notices published at the usual rates. A liberal discount made to those who ad-

(TAll transient advertisements must be point

PLAIN AND FANCY JOB WORK. Having just received a large assortment of he most modern styles of Job Type, the office is now prepared to furnish Programmos, Handrills, Posters, Cards, &c., at short notice and on reasonable terms. O' No Joh Work delivered until paid for.

pleased with their entertainment, and most of them had their hearts made glad. Over

10. Having a just and high appreciation of and get them to investigate it, and if they will not infringing upon your good nature when I A Colonel with treen uniform on has some | 11. Gentlemen, for the last time, permit

Is lighted to see you change your positon by is up, and we want to go home and see the yourselver subject to be called into line again;

Rev. M. - a man about six feet four in Three days before they had pitched their tent omit all except his travels, as the public him about a mile, when they began to drop door, inquiring of every one he met if they to a close, when the minister, all anxiety for the welfare of the patriotic volunteer, proceedblea of getting too near the river. At the In came Major Beckwith, with a note sent ed to make some inquiries in reference to his received the startling reply, settled long ago!"

ing to her, for a pony and pack saddle, and piling the daughter and her portion of the piling the daughter and appointments from the list of heroes; those let not the person most interested, the patr. ped, quietly surrendered, and when brought who fight the country's battles must be cared otic soldier, fighting for constitution and cour try, cry out for the snow of the winter, like And so it went on fer four or five hours, King Richard III., My kingdom for a horse,